

LARRY CHLOUPEK

Larry Chloupek was born and raised in the Washington, DC area. He graduated from The American University with a BS in Business Administration. Larry began his career with the Federal Government working for the USDA as a Human Resources Specialist for four years. He handled the majority of the recruiting for the Foreign Agricultural Service. He went to the Office of Personnel Management for 3 years working on recruiting policy and initiatives. Larry came to the National Cancer Institute in 1991 and became an Administrative Officer in 1993. He was Deputy ARC Manager in NCI from 1999 through October 2008. He began his current position as the Management Liaison Director for the Office of the Director in November 2008.