Dinah F. B. Cohen is the Director for the Department of Defense (DOD) Computer/Electronic Accommodations Program (CAP). Ms. Cohen works closely with senior leadership throughout the Federal sector to ensure employees, beneficiaries, and members of the public with disabilities have equal access to Federal services and employment. Over 74,000 requests for accommodations have been filled since CAP's inception in 1990. Ms. Cohen also initiated a program to provide assistive technology and accommodation support to wounded service members to aid in their rehabilitation and recovery process. Recently, Ms. Cohen was awarded the 2008 Federal 100 Award, and the DOD Exceptional Civilian Service Award for her leadership and impact on the development, acquisition and management of information technology in the Federal government. The Partnership for Public Service honored Ms. Cohen as the recipient of the 2007 Service to America Citizen Services Medal for her team’s tremendous impact on employees with disabilities and wounded service members.

Ms. Cohen is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor. She received her Master's of Science degree in Counseling Psychology with a concentration in rehabilitation counseling from the State University of New York. She also holds a BS in Social Science/Elementary Education from Russell Sage College in Troy, New York.
